

Working With Bernadette in 10 Easy Ways

What Type of Speaker Do You Want?	 Bernadette	 Speaker 2	 Speaker 3
Bernadette will make a video for social media marketing your event. Perhaps a blog written for your newsletter or website? Or even a podcast guest? This is all about you!
She will wrap the fickleness of 'sales speak' language with the nuances of psychology and address more than the just the rudimentary basics of 'how to close a deal'
Bernadette's presentation is part of an event eco-system, not the entire solar system, and has a lack of diva-ness that is like a breath of fresh air.
She will spend time interviewing relevant people prior to the event to ensure that she knows your business, your lingo, and your outcomes so that your audience feels 'she gets me!'
Want some books to giveaway? Just ask!
If you would like her to spend the day with you, or even join you for dinner or breakfast, this is all part of her silver service.
If you need an Emcee at the last minute, or simply want an extra voice to make your event more seamless Bernadette will bring levity and flow.
Bernadette has amazing testimonials - on video and in writing from C Suite, Conference Organisers and has THEIR NAMES!
She has a variety of incremental ways to embed the learning - Master Classes, Online Programs and Fireside Chats
Finally, know you are in good hands because if the power goes out - she can speak without slides!!
